FALMOUTH PARISH CHURCH OF KING CHARLES THE MARTYR

Priest-in-Charge: Rev'd Stephen Tudgey M. Th (Oxon) 01326 319141

Remembrance and the way of Love.

Dear All,

During this month we have Remembrance Sunday when we give thanks for the great sacrifices made by so many men and women in the service of this country.

The war memorials up and down the land remind us that war is costly. Many of the names on war memorials were young adults who gave all to defend this country .

The war poets remind us of the horrors of war and the scale of human suffering. Sadly wars still rage in various parts of the world today. The recent conflict in Syria is just one example. We continue to pray for justice and peace. Jesus points to a better way of living- the way of love. He gave us the commandment to love one another as he loves us. John 15 vs 12. Jesus taught that when we obey the commands of God then we will know his joy.

On Sunday 24th November there will be a Confirmation service at Pendeen parish Church at 3pm. I invite members of KCM Church to join us as we support candidates from our church who will be confirmed by Bishop Philip. This is an important step in their journey of faith. Please pray for all of the candidates and their families.

Yours sincerely,

Stephen

Rev'd Stephen Tudgey

KCM Christmas Market

The Christmas Market takes place on Saturday 7th December, 11am - 2pm. There are over 20 stands booked at this time and I am hoping for a few more. Please can you all help by donating bottles for the bottle stall, items for the tombola, books, cakes for Letitia's cake stand, homemade preserves, mince pies and raffle prizes.

From the beginning of November, boxes for bottles, tombola and raffle donations will be put in the Baptistry.

There will be Carol singing and music from Richard Bailey and our choir.

It would be fantastic if we could all help with donations as all the money raised will go to KCM and it could be our last Christmas Market?

King Charles Mummers

The Autumn production is 'Steel Magnolias' by Robert Harling. November 13th - 16th at 7.30pm in the King Charles Theatre, New Street. Tickets £8 from The Cornish Store, Falmouth (01326 315514). Directed by Jane Stevenson.
